Local Auto Co. Makes Big Gain in Sales

South Side Auto Exchange, 7815 S. Halsted St., formerly at 6047 S. Halsted St., sold five cars last Friday. Pretty good considering weather conditions, the weather on this day being the worst we have had this year. Anderson & Osterholm, 59th and Carpenter Sts., came in in the morning and bought a Dodge, which gave such satisfaction that they came in later in the day and bought two more. Frank Cipar, florist, 7121 S. Halsted St., bought a new Dodge with an enclosed body. The fifth car was sold to N. P. Hanson of Morgan Park. Business is improving. We have sold more cars during the latter part of November and December than during any corresponding length of time this summer.

Strands of Fate

Did you think that Fate bound you, poor fellow?
Just strain at your chains and you'll see
That the binding was all purely mental:

CHICAGO FEDERATED PRINTING TRADES UNION COUNCIL 288 ORGANIZED 1896

Miss Leona Hayes, harpist, Miss Enda Hayes, violinist, and Miss Gertrude Artingstall, pianist, will be heard as soloists at a Christmas entertainment given by the junior class of the Chicago Normal College.

Calvary M. E. Church had a very successful bazaar.

Stop! Look Listen! Guard Against Fire In Christmas Plans

Santa Claus will wear asbestos whiskers this year if the warning of the fire prevention authorities is observed.

"A safe and sane Christmas is as necessary a slogan as the safe and sane Fourth of July," says the committee on prevention.

Christmas trees should be provided with a solid base, placed away from curtains or other inflammable materials, and paper and celluloid decorations and open candles should not be used as decorations, according to the recommendations.

Instead of cotton "snow" asbestos decorations are preferable, and electric lights instead of candles. Children should be warned against tipping over the tree, and a fire extinguisher or pail of water should be kept in a convenient place.

Kills Little Brother Examining a Revolver

Four-Year Old Boy Accidentally Shot in Forehead at 1644 McHenry Street.

John Stelmackowski, 4½ years old, was shot in the forehead and instantly killed with a revolver by his 18-year-old brother, Stanley, in their home, 1644 McHenry St.

Stanley and Herbert Higgins, 151 S. Western Ave., the owner of the weapon, were taken into custody for the inquest today.

They said Higgins took the revolver to the McHenry St. house to show it to the elder Stelmackowski boy. The latter was examining the weapon when it was discharged accidentally.

Give A Useful Gift

It will bring joy and satisfaction to the recipient. Among the many suitable articles we have we mention a few—

Hot Point Electric Irons and Toasters
save work and are really desirable to every home.

Savory and Lisk Roasters will cook that roast to a turn at a mininum expense for fuel.

Carving Sets
many a good meal is spoiled by a poor carving knife. We have many fine sets.

Aluminum Ware
the modern kitchen is not complete without aluminum cooking utensils. Our showing is large.

Pocket Knives and Tools
a pocket knife is always desirable and the handy man loves nothing better than a good tool.

Sleds and Ice Skates

Santa May Know Who Telephoned, Anyway

If He Does a Little Girl Will Get Her Doll, Mamma Her Slippers and Papa His Pipe.

A little Hyde Park girl tried to telephone to Santa Claus.

She sent in a "Main 18" call to the Hyde Park police station. Operator Richard Hunt answered.

"I'm a little girl, 7 years old," said a childish voice on the wire. "I'd like to have you connect me with Santa Claus."

"I can't do that now," Hunt told her, "but tell me what you want and I'll try to deliver the message."

"Well, I want a doll," she said, "and slippers for mamma, a pipe for papa and some toys for brothers and sister."

There was a buzzing on the wire, Hunt couldn't get her name. Then she was gone.

Six Alcohol-Drinking Convicts to Recover

Warden Michael Zimmer of the Joliet penitentiary said Sunday the six convicts who survived the wood alcohol debauch which killed four men Saturday would recover. It was thought three probably would die, but drastic measures have counteracted the poison.

Burglars ransacked the apartment of Henry L. Reinhardt at 6217 Vernon Ave. while he and his wife were visiting Sunday evening and escaped with a chest of silver and jewelry valued at $1,500. Though there are more than forty other families in the apartment building, the burglars escaped without attracting attention. With the doors barred they worked at their leisure.

IN GIFT BOXES

True, we have many delightful things to show you for Christmas giving, some that are merely beautiful, some that are really useful, and some that are both. Asked to name the most attractive and useful gift for the gentlewoman, we should be compelled to give precedence to Crane's Linen Lawn—The Gift of Gifts. This fine stationery, in artistically decorated gift boxes, has all the virtues of the ideal gift—Beauty, Correctness, Usefulness—and it is always acceptable even if duplicated.

Our Assortment is Complete—Small Boxes for those you wish to remember; Elaborate Boxes for those to whom a more pretentious gift is fitting. Correspondence Cards and Envelopes, gilt edge, in fancy boxes, 25c to 50c.

AUBURN PARK LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. P. E. Ratcliff entertained for the Chicago Literary Store at a Children's Party Saturday afternoon, Dec. 16th, at Hamilton Park.

A very entertaining program was rendered, including dancing by Miss Helen Ratcliff and whistling by Miss Rose McGilvray. Boyle Reynolds and Virginia Ratcliff in readings were quite interesting, and Harriet Schear and Helen Letts acquitted themselves splendidly at the piano.

St. Leo's Choir gave a card party Tuesday, Dec. 19th, for the benefit of their organ fund. Turkeys, ducks and chickens were given for prizes.

We offer our sympathy to the friends and relatives of Herman W. Stiner of 7337 Union Ave., and of James R. M'Guire of 710 W. 82nd St.

Christmas Child

Little child of Christmas, do none know
That you have come and in that room so drear
Huddle in rags for warmth where there is none,
And in your dark, damp corner death lurks near?

Chilled and withered like a frosted plant,
Now lies, half-starved, the sickly parent stem;
No one to smooth and ease her weary bed,
No one to coax a little life again.

Slim are all the chances for your life,
And, granted life, what promise does it hold,
Child of the slums, whose only heritage
Is poverty, pale hunger and stark cold?

—Isabel Forner Weddon.

Body of Canary Buried in State

The body of a canary was interred in Oakwood Cemetery, Waukegan, the other day at the request of its owner. The body was sent to Waukegan from DeKalb, Ill., by Mrs. Joe Jackaway, a former resident, with instructions that it be buried in the grave of her husband, who had prized the bird.

Six Deaths Laid to Falls

Falls were responsible for the deaths of six men yesterday. Paul Weber, 2102 Morse Ave., fell from a [illegible] Richard Fogarty, 24 S. Morgan St., fe downstairs; Nicholas Erzig, 1622 Orchard St., fell in a pit; Henry Artman, 6416 S. Loomis St., slipped from a ladder; Thomas Caughlin, 2969 Indiana Ave., fell and suffered a heart stroke, and Michael Finley, 15 E. 118th St., fell off an engine.

South Sea Island Experiences by Miss Zonia Baber at Neighborhood House Woman's Club, Thursday, Dec. 21st, 1916, at 2:30 p. m. 6710 May St. Bring guests.

St. Sabina's most successful bazaar ended last Saturday evening. Over two thousand dollars was made! This shows the ambition and interest of the people in their new church.
